

SUPPORT YOUR SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

We believe that music is for everyone. By joining with us to present outstanding orchestral experiences in the Yampa Valley, you champion access to the arts, help our community stay healthy and vibrant, and become part of an organization that's building community.

Your support helps us produce innovative performances, mentor students of all ages, and connect the community through the world's universal language that is music.

\*The arts are an economic engine - for every $1 invested in a nonprofit arts organization, $30 is generated... in the Yampa Valley! ***

2022-2023 Season

SEPTEMBER 17-18: ALL HAIL THE KING

Join us for a regal start to our 31st season with works by Beethoven, John Williams, and more. Special guest, pianist Walter Morales, a Costa Rican native, will perform Beethoven's Emperor Concerto, known for its grandeur and heroic melodies and a staple of the piano/orchestra repertoire for more than 200 years.

DECEMBER 2-3: FINDING CHRISTMAS

annual Finding Christmas concert is one of Steamboat Springs' most anticipated holiday traditions for adults and children alike. The performance combines holiday classics, traditional orchestral pieces, special guests, sing-a-long pieces, and lots of fun!

APRIL 1-2: A CELEBRATION OF NATURE

The evening will feature Respighi's Pines of Rome and the premiere of Ernest Richardson and Dagny McKinley's "Wolves" piece. Pines of Rome is one of the most exhilarating works celebrating nature ever written and the Wolves premiere is sure to be legendary.

IMMERSION WEEKENDS

Students of all ages and abilities gather twice a year for immersive weekends with Music Director Ernest Richardson and members of the orchestra. The weekend culminates in a free Celebration Concert.
